

Young Living Essential Oils Facebook Page

What is your favorite essential oil to give as a holiday gift?

Have an essential oil-filled weekend everyone.

How many of you use essential oils for cooking? And which oils are your favorites for cooking?

Which would you prefer 1) one website (like the new youngliving.com) with the YL story, promotions, event, product and opportunity info to send friends and prospective members or 2) one site with info about YL and its story where you could send prospective customers and downline member AND a separate site with promotions, event and product information (like the former youngliving.com/youngliving.us)?

Hey Everyone, of all the products in the new holiday catalog, http://www.youngliving.com/en\_US/products/catalogs.html, which one do you like best?

I'm torn between the awesome trios in the fun boxes and the bath set.

What do you all think about the virtual catalogs online--
http://www.youngliving.com/en\_US/products/catalogs.html? Do you like them? Do you share them with people?

It's October 1. And that means new promotions. Check them out at http://www.youngliving.com/en\_US/products/promotions/

Curiosity question: What's the weirdest thing you use essential oils for (keep 'em clean please)?

HSA Limits for 2012 Are Going Up

The IRS recently released HSA contribution limits for 2012. The limit for individual coverage will go from $3,050 to $3,100—up $50. And the limit for family coverage will go from $6,150 to $6,250—a $100 increase. That's more money you won't have to pay taxes on and that you can earn interest on if you max out your HSA contribution in 2012.

On April 1, 2011, 13 HealthEquity employees, including CEO Steve Neeleman, took a day to work on Habitat for Humanity project in Salt Lake. Check out the album below.
